Ex dividend date is the 25th of April 2007 and payment will be made on Friday 4th May 2007 through the National Bank of Greece.

As far as the economic results are concerned, Autohellas reported an increase of 13.6% in profits after tax and minority rights for 2006, reaching €18 mil from €15.9 mil in 2005. Consolidated turnover reached €116.9 mill. from €107.5 mill in 2005, an increase of 8.6%, while earnings before tax, financial activities, investment activities and depreciations reached €69.1 mill from €61 mill in 2005.

The unamortized fleet value at the end of the 2006, was at €200 mill, while total investment for fleet renewal and fleet expansion for the full year reached €114 mill. Autohellas - Hertz has managed to maintain once again its leading position in the market, with 26,800 vehicles under its management from 8,500 in 1999.

Year 2006 was the first fully operational year for Autohellas in Cyprus, while from the beginning of 2007, a new company has been established in Romania as a Hertz franchisee operating in the Fleet Management sector. Since a certain period is required for the growth of those new developments, they are expected to contribute to the company's results from 2008 onwards.
