Autohellas Group announces the start of its cooperation with CHANGAN, one of the largest manufacturers of electrified cars in China, for the distribution of fully electric and plug-in hybrid cars in Greece. The cooperation will mark the introduction and promotion of CHANGAN's advanced models in our country, starting from October this year, with the launch of the first two available fully electric models for the European market, the D-SUV DEEPAL S07 and the C-SUV DEEPAL S05.

CHANGAN models, from a manufacturer with 40 years of history in the automotive industry and over 150 years in China's heavy industry, as recently presented at the First Pan-European Presentation of the Brand in Germany, are guided by a clear mission: to lead sustainable mobility and benefit human life in multiple ways.

Following the strategy of entering the European market through the approach "In Europe, For Europe," CHANGAN plans to increase its presence in 10 European countries by the end of 2025 and create a network of more than 1,000 dealers by the end of 2030.

In Germany, the Netherlands, and the United Kingdom, CHANGAN Automobile will operate its own subsidiaries, offering vehicles and providing customer service. In Greece, as in other European markets, it will be represented by Importers/Distributors who share its human-centered character and commitment to green, sustainable mobility. CHANGAN is also creating its first European spare parts hub in the Netherlands, which will serve as a distribution center for the network of European dealers and repairers to ensure immediate technical support for its cars.

Autohellas, relying on its extensive expertise, experience, resources, and presence in the automotive market and mobility services, is committed to ensuring top satisfaction and high-quality services to its customers, enhancing their experience with the brand at every touchpoint. CHANGAN and Autohellas are committed to technology and innovation, providing pioneering mobility services to lead the automotive industry in Greece to its most advanced form.

Mr. Mingcai Li, Executive Vice President of CHANGAN Automobile Group, stated during the signing ceremony: "Autohellas Group is one of the most reliable and prominent Groups in Greek entrepreneurship, with extensive local knowledge, deep experience, and top expertise in the automotive sector, while possessing all the necessary resources to provide our customers with the best possible service and a unique experience. We are pleased to bring together with our partner Autohellas the cutting-edge technologies and high-quality products of CHANGAN to Greek consumers for a greener and smarter mobility solution."

Mr. George Vasilakis, CEO Auto-Trade segment of Autohellas Group, stated: "We are particularly happy that CHANGAN chose our Group as its partner in Greece. This agreement is a great success and at the same time underscores our philosophy and commitment to providing high-tech and quality cars, always with a view to a more sustainable and greener automotive future."
